Part F: In her last message before her death, Lady Baden-Powell wrote,

"I trust you will continue fully to use the system of work and play that our movement provides, keeping up the fun and friendships made at your meetings and camps, abiding by the Promise and upholding the Laws that you undertook to live by when you joined up. In that way you will not only advance yourself in body, mind and spirit, but you will affect those around you, in doing what is honourable and right and wise, and in giving out kindness of thought and action, thus striving against all ills and helping to make the world a happier and better place in which to live."

Reflect on what Lady Baden-Powell's words mean to you. How do they make you feel? What do they make you think about? What do they inspire you to do? What can you do using your Guiding experiences to make some of your hopes for yourself, your friends and family, your community or the world become true? Find a creative way to express these thoughts – perhaps in song, or a story, maybe in a collage or skit. You might even do a STEAM-based project (science, technology, engineering, arts or math) or offer service or volunteer as a way to express what these words mean to you. Share what you've created or done with others, including your unit, as well as younger or older branches.
