

Girl Guides of Canada-Guides du Canada: Girl Insignia for Guides

Girls in Guiding can earn insignia, such as pins and awards. Check out what you can earn and acquire in each branch!

Guide Enrolment Pin	Given at enrolment ceremony to indicate that as a Guide you have made your Guide Promise and are now a member of Guides.
Membership Pin	Each girl receives a membership pin that indicate the number of years they have been in Guiding. Your Guider will present your membership pin on the night you hold your enrolment ceremony. See pins 1-2 in Sparks branch resource and pins 3-4 in Brownies branch resource.
Unit Title Tape	Shows the name of the Guide unit and unit number you are registered in.	* Note: may differ from place to place.

Patrol Emblem

- Blue Bell
- Blue bird
- Canary
- Clover
- Daffodil
- Daisy
- Forget-me-not
- Holly
- Kingfisher
- Lily of the Valley
- Oriole
- Pansy
- Popp
- Red Rose
- Robin
- Scarlet tanager
- Shamrock
- Swallow
- Thistle
- Trillium
- Violet

As a girl you will be in a group called a Patrol. Each patrol can decide which patrol emblem best reflects who they are as a patrol. The Patrol is an ideal structure in which girls can discuss ideas for outings, set up activities and plan for future Guiding activities.

Patrol Leader Stripes Patrol Second Stripe	As a girl you will be in a group called a Patrol. Every Patrol has a leader and a second who have specific leadership tasks. Patrol Seconds get one stripe and Patrol Leaders get two stripes.	Patrol Leader Stripes  Patrol Second Stripe
Guide Challenge Pin	Given at advancement ceremony to indicate that you have completed your time in Guides.
Lady Baden Powell Award Pin	Presented by your Unit Guider when you, as a Guide, have completed the challenge requirements. This is the highest award in the Guide Program.
World Pin	Features the WAGGGS Trefoil. It may be worn on or out of uniform while in Canada and/or when visiting other countries. It can also be given to international travellers.
Western Hemisphere Pin	Represents our WAGGGS Region, which includes Canada and 34 other countries across North, South, and Central America and the Caribbean.

*Any award insignia from a previous branch can continue to be worn. It is recommended that for Guides you purchase a sash.

